

FREE POLICYHOLDER RESOURCE

Business Interruption & Commercial Claim Pack

The documentation businesses need to quantify and substantiate a property damage and business interruption claim — built to withstand insurer and forensic accountant scrutiny.

Policy and cover

- ☐ Policy schedule, wording, endorsements and broker record of advice.
- ☐ Sums insured, indemnity period and any declared or estimated turnover basis.
- ☐ Extensions in force: public utilities, supplier/customer, denial of access, SASRIA.

Loss and damage evidence

- ☐ Dated photographs and video of plant, stock, buildings and services affected.
- ☐ Asset register and fixed asset schedule with acquisition dates and values.
- ☐ Stock records: WIP, raw materials, finished goods, spoilage and salvage.
- ☐ Engineering reports on plant, machinery, electrical and structural damage.

Financial substantiation

- ☐ Audited financials for the preceding three years.
- ☐ Monthly management accounts — 12 months pre-loss and full indemnity period.
- ☐ Turnover, gross profit and standing charges analysis.
- ☐ Payroll records, overtime and temporary labour costs.
- ☐ Increased cost of working: hire, subcontracting, expediting, temporary premises.
- ☐ Orders lost, cancelled contracts and customer correspondence.

Mitigation and reinstatement

- ☐ Steps taken to reduce the loss, with supporting invoices.
- ☐ Reinstatement programme, contractor quotes and progress valuations.
- ☐ Regulatory, municipal or compliance costs triggered by reinstatement.

How NKH prepares the claim

Senior claims consultants and ECSA-registered engineers prepare the scope, causation and quantum, then present and negotiate the claim on your behalf — a single accountable point of contact from notification to settlement.

This document is general information for policyholders and does not constitute legal advice or a policy interpretation. Timelines and remedies depend on your policy wording and the facts of your claim. NKH Advisory (Pty) Ltd — claims preparation, damage assessment and loss adjusting for policyholders. © NKH Advisory (Pty) Ltd.